About

Mission

For over 25 years, the Federal Criminal Law Committee for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (operating initially as the Federal Bar Association, Criminal Law Committee, Philadelphia Chapter) has been dedicated to addressing issues concerning criminal defense in the federal courts. The Committee's mission is to facilitate the fair, speedy and effective administration of criminal justice.

Membership and Governance

The Committee is a non-profit volunteer bar organization in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania that holds a bi-annual event celebrating the Bill of Rights and presents CLE seminars in Philadelphia. The Committee accredits its CLE seminars only in Pennsylvania.

The Committee was established in 1988, and is composed of members of the bar other than prosecutors and members of the judiciary. Attorneys may become members upon payment of applicable dues.

The Committee is governed by its Officers and Executive Committee. The Officers consist of the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary and Treasurer, who are elected for one-year terms by the full membership. Executive Committee members are appointed by the Chair of the Committee.

On January 3, 2017, the Committee filed its Articles of Incorporation with the Pennsylvania Department of State as a domestic non-profit corporation.

Brief History

In 1985, Stanley Weinberg, then Vice-Chairman of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Federal Bar Association asked Luther Weaver and Stan Shmukler to co-chair a seminar on the recently enacted Comprehensive Crime Control Act of 1984. That seminar was so successful that in 1988, when Weinberg became President of the Philadelphia Chapter, he requested that
